MONEY TALKS

When you look back and think of things you ought to have done, you see the importance of a BANK ACCOUNT.

Wealth depends on what you save not what you earn.

If you will not save you will not have. Having is the result of saving. Read about the lives of rich men, and you'll find as a rule the statement: "He started as a poor boy."

No man who labors for wages or salary is too poor to have a bank account. Begin with one dollar, and we will help you.

Interest paid on savings.

Announcement

In opening up the new O. K. Barber Shop and baths, I wish to state that I have spared neither pains or expense in making this one of the most up-to-date and sanitary shops in the State, and that I am now better prepared to serve my customers in a sanitary and workmanship manner than ever before in Beaver. To the freight haulers, farmers and out-of-town people in general, I wish to state that I have provided special accommodations for you in the way of phone, washroom, etc. and that you are always welcome to make my shop your headquarters when in Beaver.

I thank my friends and customers for your past patronage and assure you it will be appreciated in the future.

Yours for service,
P. L. "TOP" THOMAS.

LAMPS THE SAFE KIND

THE danger from poorly constructed lamps is an ever present menace. You never can tell when they may explode and destroy life or property.

If you would like lamps that can be used with entire confidence as to their safety come to see us. We have them. Lamps that give a steady light, do not waste oil and so made as to burn their wicks evenly. Smoked chimneys rendered a rarity when the lamps are properly handled. Lanterns for the night workers.

A Good Lamp Makes Home Both
Pleasant and Secure.

W. C. RUTLEDGE FOR RE-ELECTION

It will be good news to every friend of W. C. Rutledge to hear that he has decided to make the race for re-election as Commissioner for District No. 2. He had many friends and supporters in his campaign two years ago, who believe that he will have many more this year because of his record as Commissioner during the current term. If he has been guilty of any action, which would show that he is incompetent, now is the time for it to be proven. If he has not now is the time for the democrats of the District to support his campaign and make him the nominee of his party.

Mr. Rutledge boosts the entire board of Commissioners by declaring that their administration has been economical and in keeping with the best business principles, that no money has been spent for any except legitimate purposes; that what was spent was well invested and will benefit the people of the county to an extent that fully warrants the expenditure.

Personally, Mr. Rutledge is known to be an upright, God-fearing man, not afraid to have convictions and to stand by them. He comes of good old Tennessee stock, Presbyterian as to religion and Democratic as to politics. These facts prejudice the writer in his favor, but he is not making the race with these planks as his platform. He asks for re-election because he feels that he can serve the people of Beaver county again in a satisfactory manner.

The Herald takes pleasure in asking our democratic readers—of whom we have many—to give Mr. Rutledge's candidacy careful and earnest consideration when they make their choice at the polls in August.

ANOTHER MODERN CONVENIENCE

Top Thomas is now in his new barber shop in the W. T. Quinn building. The shop is one of the most attractive and modern in this section of the state. The new fixtures and chairs are very sanitary, being enameled in white. Three new steel chairs, a new lavatory and other fixtures, all modern in character, have been added to the equipment of the front shop. Two bath rooms, finished in white and fitted with large enameled tubs, are in the rear, where there is also a lavatory open to the public, at all times, free of charge. Here also is found a modern boiler and heater, for heating water for the tubs and for the general uses of the shop.

The floors are covered with cork and every provision has been made for cleanliness, for the convenience of the public and for the comfort of the employees.

"Top" has been in business in Beaver for several years and has always conducted a clean, orderly place of business. In installing this shop, his aim has been to keep up with the progress of the city, and that he has succeeded no one can truthfully gainsay.

REPUBLICANS OF OKLAHOMA

DO YOUR DUTY

Don't be content to let the Republicans of other states save the country. True, Hughes and Fairbanks will be elected without your help. But make yourselves worthy of participation in the fruits of the victory by carrying Oklahoma. You can do it!

The first thing to do, is to defeat the Literacy Test. On August 1st, take a pencil and STRIKE OUT THE WORDS, "For the Amendment", appearing on your ballot under the heading, State Question No. 82, Initiative Petition No. 55.

QUIET WEDDING

The Herald is in receipt of a letter from Rev. Chas. Wardell, of Floris, conveying the information that he officiated at a quiet wedding at the court house on July 4th at 1:30 p. m.

The principals were Miss Josie Coker and Alvis Reed, both of Floris. They will make their home on J. W. Reed's farm near New Hope. Both parties are young people of intelligence and character, well thought of in their community, and fitted to make a happy Christian home.

A CORRECTION

In some way a mistake was made in last week's issue with regard to the announcement of S. A. Mouriquand for County Commissioner from the 2nd District. The type read that Mr. Mouriquand is a candidate on the Democratic ticket, when it should have read Republican. No harm is done by our error, we trust, and avail ourselves of this, the first opportunity, to correct it.

Jim Crabtree went down to the Kiowa, Sunday, to get Mrs. Crabtree and Jas., who have been visiting with her mother for several weeks.

ALBERT WELLBORN FOR COUNTY JUDGE

I am a candidate for County Judge on the Republican ticket at the primary to be held August 1st, 1916. Judge J. A. Spohn is my opponent in this primary.

I cannot meet all the voters in person—you are busy and so am I—therefore I take this means of stating my position. I believe in a prompt, clean administration of the laws, and that the County Clerk, Court Clerk, Treasurer and County Judge should be in their offices during business hours every business day of the week. The duties of the other officers call them away at times. We all know that the delays in the trial of cases are expensive to the tax-payers and a denial of justice. When the state or plaintiff files its case it thereby announces it will be ready for trial at the next term. The law gives the defendant a reasonable time to prepare for trial, so why not try the case when the facts are fresh and the costs small? To continue the case, in criminal matters, means additional expense on the tax-payers for jury fees, witness fees, etc.; in civil cases it means that the poorer and weaker litigant is harassed and exhausted by loss of time, hotel bills and other expenses. If he wins, he is crippled or ruined financially. Litigants should be made to know that a case in court means a trial, attended by delays and expense, and should not be permitted at the cost of the tax-payers of the county.

If you favor the above rules of practice, vote for me on August 1st. If you do not favor them, vote for the other man.

ALBERT WELLBORN.

W. J. IMEL FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER OF SECOND DISTRICT

W. J. Imel herewith presents his name to the Republican voters of the Second District as a candidate for the nomination for County Commissioner. He has resided on his farm near Forgan for a number of years and is well and favorably known to a large number of people throughout the county. Born in Indiana, he is a staunch Republican, both by tradition and belief in its principles.

Mr. Imel is a successful farmer, one whom all his neighbors love for his sterling worth as a man of broad, liberal views on all public questions. He is sincere in his intercourse with his fellow-men, of fine ability, unflinching in his integrity and possesses a true conception of his duty, as a citizen, toward his country.

If nominated and elected full trust can be placed in him, by the taxpayers that public funds will not be squandered but put to their proper use. He deserves your consideration and support.

—A FRIEND.

CARTER MCKILLIPS

Roy Carter and Miss Eula McKillips were united in marriage Sunday evening, July 9th, by the Rev. L. L. Shaw. Mr. Carter is a barber and employed in the "Den or Smoke House" and enjoys the respect of all his acquaintances. Miss Eula has grown to womanhood in our midst, and has been employed in Mrs. W. H. Robertson's millinery establishment for several years. She is a very lovable and intelligent young woman, who counts her friends by her acquaintances. She is the daughter of Frank McKillip, former merchant here.

The happy couple have gone to Wichita, Kansas for a short visit with Mr. Carter's parents, after which they will return to Beaver to make their home.

The Herald extends congratulations and good wishes for their future prosperity and happiness.

FOR RENT

Seventy to one hundred acres of wheat ground, about one-half mile from Beaver, to be put into wheat at one-fourth crop rent, to be delivered at elevator at my discretion. Ground to be plowed. For further particulars write, J. O. BRADLEY, 813 W. Noble Ave., Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Judge Detwiler has set a precedent and in law precedents are always followed you know. The judge decided it would cost a man $100 and thirty days in jail to whip his wife. Any masculine readers of the Herald desiring to indulge in this form of amusement, had better first ascertain that they are out of the confines of Judge Detwiler's jurisdiction.

The interior of the new postoffice building was painted this week. The damage done to the second story by the storm, several weeks ago, is to be repaired soon. Postmaster Miller intends to have one of the most convenient and best equipped offices in the state when it is completed.
